

A Unique A Cappella Experience

Contact: Shoshana Davidowitz, Women of Note Chorus
561.374-4248, or 1.877.WON SING (1.877.966.7464)

For Immediate Release

RISING STAR VOCAL SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION HIGHLIGHTS WOMEN OF NOTE ANNUAL SHOW

Boynton Beach, Florida, January 5, 2010 – The Rising Star Vocal Scholarship Competition was the highlight of the Women of Note's annual show, In the Spotlight: Rising Stars on Saturday, December 12, 2009, at the Eissey Campus Theatre in Palm Beach Gardens. Each of the six finalists performed two selections and based on audience votes were awarded scholarships provided by the Women of Note Chorus. In addition to the exciting competition, the Women of Note took the stage with their outstanding four-part a cappella harmony, innovative choreography and dazzling costumes. It was an unforgettable evening of entertainment.

Kelley McGillicuddy, a senior at The King's Academy, placed first and was awarded a scholarship of $500. In second place was Nicole Granet, a sophomore at Spanish River Community High School, who was awarded $400. Third place, with a scholarship of $300, was Clydia Jeudy, a senior at Forest Hill Community High School. A $200 fourth place scholarship was awarded to Erin Boyle, a sophomore at Boca Raton Community High School; Mikah Adams, a junior at Kings Academy; and Eva May, a senior at Palm Beach Central High School, fifth and six place competitors were awarded scholarships of $100 each.

For additional information about the Women of Note Chorus please visit our website, womenofnote.com or call toll-free 1.877.WON.SING (1.877.966.7464).

###
